If this policy has been in effect for 70 days or more, or if it is a renewal of a policy issued by us, we may cancel or not renew only on the anniversary date or if one of the following reasons apply:

- a. failure to pay a premium when due;
- b. your conviction of a crime arising out of acts increasing the hazard insured against;
- c. discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation in the obtaining of the policy or in the presentation of a claim thereunder;
- d. discovery of an act or omission or a violation of any condition of the policy which occurred after the effective date of the current policy and substantially and materially increases the hazard insured against;
- e. a material change in the nature or extent of the risk, occurring after the first effective date of the current policy, which causes the risk of loss to be substantially and materially increased beyond that contemplated at the time the policy was issued or last renewed;
- f. a determination by the Commissioner that continuation of our present volume of premiums would jeopardize our solvency or be hazardous to the interests of our policyholders, our creditors, or the public; or
- g. a determination by the Commissioner that the continuation of the policy would violate, or place us in violation of, any provision of the code.

2. Anniversary Cancellation

If the term of this policy is longer than one year, and we decide to cancel at the annual anniversary date, we will give you written notice of cancellation at least 60 days before the anniversary date if the cancellation is for reasons other than nonpayment of premium. For nonpayment of premium, we will give you at least ten days' notice.

3. Nonrenewal

If we do not renew this policy, we will give you notice at least 60 days before the end of the policy period. Notice of nonrenewal is not required if you have accepted replacement coverage, you have requested or agreed to nonrenewal, or the policy is expressly designated as nonrenewable.

4. Renewal with Altered Terms

If we decide to renew this policy with different terms or different rates, we will give you notice at least 30 days before those terms or rates become effective.
